

Guidelines to send literary material for “MANTHAN”

- (1) The material must strictly be in Marathi script.
- (2) Material can be sent via email (soft-copy) or postal mail (hard-copy). The email address to send soft-copies is manthan@mmla.org and the mailing address to send hard copies is:

MMLA Manthan
12311 Pacific Ave, #2
Los Angeles CA 90066

- (3) All material must be original and submitted by the original author. If the material sent is work of another author, a written consent of the original author must also be attached.
- (4) The following information must be attached along with any submission:

Title:
Author:
Date of submission:
Sender (if different than Author):
Sender address:
Sender phone:
Is it published before, if yes where?:

- (5) Sender and/or author understands that by submission of literary material to Manthan he/she grants MMLA full rights to use it for Manthan's initiatives in creating a podcast and/or publishing it any other form, as part of Manthan program.
- (6) Sender and/or author understands that by submission of literary material to Manthan he/she grants MMLA permission to publish author's name along with his/her material. If author intends not to publish his/her name, a written request is required along with the submission.
- (7) Material soft copies can be sent to “Manthan” in any one of the following file formats:

Text: txt, doc, rtf
Audio: wav, wma, mp3, iTunes
Image (if scanned):jpg, bmp

- (8) The work could be any form of literary work like, articles, poems, short stories, book reviews, interviews of prominent personalities (interviewed by sender or with written permission of interviewer), etc.
- (9) MMLA reserves the right to exclude any material if the content is inappropriate or objectionable.